DETAILED ACTION

Priority

1. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.
2. The examiner makes of record that instant claims 2 and 3 recite a broad range of components followed by a series of narrow ranges (i.e. with the term "preferably"). For examination purposes, the examiner asserts that the narrow ranges recited in instant claims 2 and 3 are merely exemplary ranges, and thus, the prior art will be applied against the broadest ranges recited in instant claims 2 and 3. Furthermore, the examiner suggests that applicant should delete the narrow ranges from instant claims 2 and 3, and add new dependent claims that recite the narrow ranges recited in instant claims 2 and 3.

Claim Objections

3. Claims 4 and 6 are objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c) as being in improper form because a multiple dependent claim should refer to other claims in the alternative only. See MPEP § 608.01(n). Accordingly, the claims have not been further treated on the merits.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

5. Claims 1-3 and 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

6. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, for containing the phrase "in the substantial absence of oxygen bleaches." The term "substantial absence" renders the claim vague and indefinite, since one of ordinary skill in the art would not be able to ascertain the metes and bounds of the term "substantial absence of oxygen bleaches". Furthermore, the specification does not contain guidelines describing what numerical values are encompassed by the phrase "substantial absence of oxygen bleaches". Appropriate correction and/or clarification is required.

7. Claims 2-3 and 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, for being dependent upon claim 1.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

8. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

Art Unit: 1751

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

9. Claims 1-3 and 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over May et al, U.S. Patent No. 4,652,403, in view of Kuzee et al, WO 99/64551.

The primary reference of May et al, U.S. Patent No. 4,652,403, discloses a laundry composition comprising 1-40% by weight of an aluminosilicate and 0.5-5% by weight of an aminopoly(methylenephosphonate) (see abstract and col. 1, lines 34-64). It is further taught by May et al that the composition further contains surfactants (see col. 2, line 65-col. 3, line 35), and that bleaches are an optional ingredient (see col. 2, lines 36-64). Specifically, note Examples 1-2, which disclose laundry detergent bases that are free of oxygen bleaches. May et al does not disclose a laundry detergent composition that contains a fructan component, as required in the instant claims.

The secondary reference of Kuzee et al, WO 99/64551, discloses a laundry detergent composition comprising a fructan polycarboxylic acid which contains on average at least 0.05 carboxyl groups per monosaccharide unit (see abstract and page 2, lines 25-36). It is further taught by Kuzee et al that the use of fructan polycarboxylic acids leads to a highly efficient, environmental-friendly removal of contaminants from textiles (see page 2, lines 1-8).

Therefore, in view of the teachings of the secondary reference of Kuzee et al, one having ordinary skill in the art would be motivated to modify the primary reference of May et al by using a fructan polycarboxylic acid to produce a laundry detergent composition that is highly efficient in removing contaminants and that is environmentally-friendly. Such modification would be obvious because one would expect that the use of a fructan polycarboxylic acid, as taught by Kuzee et al, would be similarly useful and applicable to the analogous laundry taught by May et al.
